

AN AUSTRALIAN CATHEDRAL CITY

Anglican and Catholic Structures at Goulburn.

A BUSY INDUSTRIAL TOWN

Regarded as a Suitable Site for the Proposed Federal Capital—Beautiful Mountain Scenery—Picturesque and Healthy Country.

Each of the Australian states possesses several large cities representing so many dioceses, and having large and beautiful cathedrals, both Anglican and Roman Catholic.

Among those in New South Wales, Goulburn may be regarded as holding the pride of position, forming as it does the busy metropolis of the southern half of the state. It is situated on the main line connecting Brisbane and Sydney with Melbourne and Adelaide, being 134 miles south of Sydney, and 574 miles northeast of Melbourne.

By many Goulburn has been regarded as a suitable site for the proposed Federal capital. It possesses all the cheery surroundings of a large and well-ordered city, the main thoroughfares of which rival the Parisian boulevards in their width, the precision with which they are laid out, and the systematic use of shade trees.

The great feature of the city is the Anglican Cathedral, which, so far as ecclesiastical adornment goes, puts to shame that in the metropolis. It is one of the finest edifices of its kind in Australia, and a portion of a day may well be employed in the inspection of its manifold attractions.

Gothic in Architecture.

It is in the Gothic style, its internal length being 150 feet. The nave and aisles are 54 feet in width, the transepts being 96 feet in length, and, like the nave and aisles, 54 feet in width, the ground plan thus forming a perfect cross.

The walls of the chancel, nave, and transepts are adorned with elegant decorations, beautifully carved in stone, representing incidents in the life of Christ. There are also numerous fine stained-glass windows, depicting subjects of a Biblical character.

The music—given from Warwickshire—is of Caen stone, from the same quarries that supplied the material for the famous Normandy cathedral. It is of extremely tasteful design, somewhat like the visitors to churches in continental Europe are familiar, the central figure, under a sunken panel, being that of the Saviour, having the Prophet Elijah on the right, and Moses on the left.

The font—a present from Staffordshire—is in a similar style of art. There is also a handsome brass lectern, and the bishop's throne, the communion table, and chairs are of English oak, richly carved.

There are numerous tasteful accessories, the whole making the cathedral interior one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in Australia.

Roman Catholic Cathedral.

The Roman Catholic Cathedral is another noble structure, and, in addition, Goulburn possesses numerous handsome public and private buildings.

Although, with the exception of its cathedral, Goulburn contains little to specially attract the attention of the tourist, it forms an admirable starting point for several interesting localities.

For business purposes, however, the city could not have been more conveniently located. Situated near the large arteries formed by the confluence of the beautiful Wollondilly River and the Murrumbidgee, it forms the center of an extensive district enormously rich in agricultural and mineral resources.

Mineral wealth was the motive power in the district, but when the infant settlement was established it was named after the famous English statesman whose history is so largely mixed up with that of the earlier years of our late majesty's reign.

As the visitor passes through the city he cannot fail to note the aspect of prosperity and content which it presents. The Goulburn residents are evidently a most industrious class. They evidently rely less on the fertility of the soil, and more on their own energy, to accelerate the work of local progress.

A few miles to the eastward of the city are the Bungonia and Jerrara Caves, and a few miles further on some of the picturesque portions of the Shoalhaven.

Gratitude

Always seeks to find some expression for itself, and womanly gratitude will not keep silence. Cynical people sometimes say "Why do women write these testimonials to the value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription?"

The answer is, "In our own words, Gratitude. When, after years of agony a woman is freed from pain, when the weak woman is made strong and the sick woman well, the natural impulse is to write a word of grateful thanks for the medicine which caused the cure."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures diseases peculiar to women. It establishes regularity, stops weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Having used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' during the past year, I can truthfully recommend the medicine for all female weaknesses. I have used several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' which I consider a great blessing to weak women. I was so nervous and discouraged that I hardly knew what to do. Your kind advice for home treatment helped me wonderfully. Thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Writes Mrs. Mattie Long, of Plover Valley, Perry Co., Pa. "I can truthfully recommend the medicine for all female weaknesses. I have used several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' which I consider a great blessing to weak women. I was so nervous and discouraged that I hardly knew what to do. Your kind advice for home treatment helped me wonderfully. Thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness, and sick headache. They should be used in connection with "Favorite Prescription," whenever the use of a laxative is indicated.

After polishing off the champions with hands down in the first game, the Senators dropped the second one to them by a score of 3 to 2. It was a hard-fought battle from the start, and the three thousand or more faithful fans waxed enthusiastic over the exciting sport. The game was won and lost in the first three innings. The men from the Windy City got three tallies in the second inning. This proved to be enough to win the game as the statesmen were unable to equal that score during the nine innings. The locals got a brace of runs in the third inning. These two were all that they could get, although they came very near doing business in the scoring line in several following innings. There were strenuous doings in the fifth inning. During that session the men wearing Senatorial uniforms came very near disturbing the dust around the home plate and incidentally winning the game.

It was all up to Deleahanty to turn the tide. Old Del was not equal to the emergency and could not make good. In this inning Wolverton and Ryan succeeded in getting on the bases and were very desirous of scoring, when Deleahanty was pitched out to short. There was nothing doing in that line. Del stuck his bat out in front of a slow one and dropped it in front of the plate, and it was all off. Had Deleahanty laced the pellet to the suburban territory Wolverton and Ryan would have been able to have scored. But that is episode. The globe was not plunked to the tall timbers and the two runners did not score. Washington won the game. Just why Manager Loftus will endeavor to ascertain some time today. The doctory captain may have thought while he was at the bat that he was doing something beneficial to his home team. It is doubtful whether anyone else thought so. It is up to him to explain what he meant by his peculiar maneuvers at such a critical time.

Case Patten was "in" in the second game. He occupied the place of prominence in the center of the diamond for the locals. He was wild during the first part of the game, but managed to get the ball within close proximity of the rubber in the latter part of the game. He gave two men their bases on balls during that second inning. This in itself is accountable for Washington's defeat, as both of these men scored winning runs for the Chicago aggregation.

The Columbus Juniors defeated the Roanoke Stars in an interesting game of baseball yesterday, the score being Columbus Juniors 15, Roanoke Stars 5. The Columbus would like to play all teams in the District of Columbia averaging fourteen years of age, especially the Young Senators and the Young Couglins. These two teams profess to be the champions of the District. Challenges should be addressed to Charles Brown, 807 D Street northeast.

Senior Merou at Summer Home.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., May 31.—Senior Merou, the Argentine minister, has arrived with his family at Eastern Point, where they will spend the summer in Nathaniel Gorton's house.

GENERAL SPORTING GOSSIP.

The first race in which the new Meteor will take part will be the race across the channel, from Dover to Heligoland. The Clara, the Gleniffer, and the new Fife schooner will be entered against her. The Fife boat is the hope of the British yachtsmen, but they fear the Meteor will have in the channel all the wind necessary, in their opinion, to drive her, and that she may become the winner. The Dover-Heligoland race is down for June 21.

Peter Felix, the negro heavyweight champion of Australia, is said to intend to challenge the winner of the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons contest. Felix is a larger edition of Peter Jackson.

Mike Donovan, of Rochester, who has been rapidly coming to the fore in the welterweight division, is another boxer who is prepared to take the place of Joe Walcott and go to England and box Tommy West during coronation week at the National Sporting Club, London.

The Jack Root-George Gardner finish fight, which was to have taken place at Carson City, Nev., early in July, has fallen through.

Joe Gans is said to have refused the Daily fight in England because of the weight 132 pounds, ringside. Frank Erne did not talk at the weigh-in, and will fight Daily for the $2,500 purse.

The Brassard race at Charles River Park last week was won by Otto Maya, of Erie, Pa., Albert Champion, the holder, declining to defend the trophy. This Brassard, competed for in an hour and a half, was a spirited one on both sides. The race was a close one, between Maya and Hugh McLean, of Chelsea, until the latter had a tire burst. Another important event was a five-mile pursuit auto race, won by G. C. Canner, New York. The time was 9:02.2, which is claimed to be a world's record.

The "London Mirror of Life" is authority for the statement that after one more fight Ben Jordan will retire from the ring. Jordan has not done any boxing in public for years. Jordan married the daughter of his backer, and is now in business in London.

The cycling event of the season in Germany, the contest of the "Golden Wheel of Friedenau," on Wednesday, at Berlin, resulted in the breaking of the world's record for 100 kilometers. Robt. of Munich, won the event and covered the distance in 1:38:18. Dickmann, of Amsterdam, came second, and T. Linton, the English bicyclist, was third. Goubours, of Paris, fell in the race, but got up and resumed riding.

Joseph Barrett, of Baltimore, wants to match a colored lightweight of that city called "The Texas Game Bug" against any lightweight in Philadelphia.

Charley Wittmer and Champion Tom Jenkins are matched for a mixed-style fight at the Casino Club, Cincinnati (Ohio) Ball Park for Monday.

F. Ambrose Clarke has purchased from Clarence H. MacKay the horse Semholle, which will be trained for steeplechasing.

The high court of Toronto, Ontario has decided that betting in Canada on the races outside of the Dominion is illegal.

Arab Girl, dam of the ex-queen of papers, Bessie Bonehill, 2-0534, owned at Maple Leaf Farm, South Charleston, Ohio, has foaled two fillies by Axis of Axtell. Both are reported alive and making well. This is especially remarkable, as Arab Girl is twenty years old.

"I believed I could beat McCoy before he fought Carter," said Jack Root, "and now I am sure I can. I may not be the champion, but I can beat him. I have a clean record. McCoy, Gardner, Carter, Choyinski, Hart—in fact, all the 'light heavies'—have had a taste of defeat, while I have not."
